CORAM; A.M.KHANWILKAR J.

DATED 6.3.2006

P.C.

. In terms of order dated 7.6.2005 the applicant was required to submit some daily newspapers to the Registry within a period of one week, failing which the appeal was ordered to be dismissed without further reference to court. It was a self operative order. The counsel for the applicant fairly accepts that this order has not been complied with in time though publication was done in time as per the order dated 8.4.2005 to effect service on unserved respondent nos. 2, 4 and 5. By way of indulgence this application is allowed in terms of prayer clause (a) and (b) on condition that the applicant shall pay cost quantified at Rs.l500/- each to the High Court Legal Service Authority within one week from today, failing which the order dated 7.6.2005 to stand revived. The affidavit of service which is tendered across the Bar to be filed in the Registry.

. The counsel for the respondent no.l states that he shall be taking discharge from this matter. That application be moved before the appropriate court which will be considered on its own merits.

. Place both these appeals in list of next week to be issued at appropriate place in the final hearing board under caption "Appeal From Order"
